

WHAT HAPPENED OUTSIDE CHICAGO

Cleveland.—Earthquake tremors recorded on seismograph at St. Ignatius University. Disturbances believed in China or Indian ocean.

Columbus, O.—Police searching for negro who shot and killed Johnny Albanese, local prizefighter, during altercation on street.

Baltimore, Md.—Julia Marlowe, actress, in serious condition after operation for appendicitis.

Sacramento, Cal.—City and county authorities state no more food will be supplied jobless men.

London.—Zelie Emerson, American suffraget, arrested in battle between militants and police. May be deported.

Philadelphia.—"Migratory workers" will start march to Washington second week in April, led by J. Eads Howe, millionaire hobo.

New York.—20 persons injured when street car was tossed several feet into air by explosion of gas main at Broadway and Fifth av.

London.—Frederick Townsend Martin, wealthy New Yorker and author, dead.

Portland, Ore.—Albert Howard, accused of wholesale thefts of linen from firm of Fleishner, Mayer & Co., after 30 years' employment, suicided in cell.

Washington.—Puckerless persimmons latest achievement of scientists of Department of Agriculture.

Omaha.—J. H. Hopper, 26, stock broker, killed while resisting arrest of charge of uttering false checks.

Los Angeles.—3 more of 8 men given Neo-salvarsan at county hospital dead, making 7 victims in 24 hours.

New York.—Singing catchy waltz song which he had been unable to sell, Henry Davis, young English composer, won freedom in night court after he was arrested on charge of begging.

Los Angeles.—Helen Keller, deaf and blind girl, said she heard high notes sung by Mme. Saltzman-Stevens in Brunhilde's announcement to Sieglinde.

Milwaukee.—Thos. Karr, telegraph operator, shot by A. P. Lapointe in argument over a girl and politics.

Elkhart, Ind.—Earl Dollman, 18, son of John Dollman, crushed to death in calendaring machine of Elkhart Paper Co.

Clarksburg, W. Va.—3 persons were burned to death when fire destroyed Lowe building in Market street and adjoining structures.

Mobile, Ala.—W. T. Bright, wealthy lumberman, dead, and Mrs. Don Anglin suffering from bullet wound in cheek result of attack by husband in chair car on train.

Glasgow, Scotland.—Miss Cissy Wood, 86, Rickerton, Scotland, won flowing match against best men farmers of district.

Newark, N. J.—Fearing ridicule of playmates because father bought him narrow, pointed shoes like girls wear, Henry Bassett, Jr., 8, swallowed poison. Stomach pump saved him.

RYAN AND OTHERS MUST SERVE JAIL SENTENCES

Washington, D. C., March 9.—President Frank M. Ryan and 23 members of the Bridge and Structural Steel Workers' Union convicted in the celebrated dynamite conspiracy cases must serve their jail sentences, the Supreme Court decided today.

The court refused to review their conviction in the lower federal courts at Indianapolis and Chicago. Denial of the writ of review exhausted the last resource of the defendants.

Waiter (to Town Councillor, who is furtively feeling the edges of the knives arranged on the banqueting table)—It's all right, Mr. Brown. Every one of 'em has been sharpened. Town Councillor (moodily)—Ah wor looking for a blunt 'un; t' last time Aw wor 'ere Aw cut my mouth!"